

Bullying: What Parents Need to Know

PARENTING IS HARD, AND IT GETS EVEN HARDER WHEN YOUR CHILD IS BEING BULLIED, WITNESSES BULLYING, OR IS A BULLY. LEARN WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO KEEP YOUR CHILD SAFE FROM HARM.

Workshop for Elementary School Parents
Date: Wednesday, March 14, 2012

Time: 7:00 p.m.

Location: East Hills Elementary School

CAPS is Long Island's leading nonprofit resource on the prevention of bullying, child abuse and neglect.

Renee Haber is a New York State certified high school English and reading teacher who is busy raising two children, and enrolled in the Adelphi University MSW program. She devotes much of her free time to volunteering at the Sid Jacobson Jewish Community Center, and CAPS. To date, Renee has presented workshops to many parent groups, as well as CAPS' bully prevention workshops at the elementary and middle school levels. She has a special interest in the issue of relational aggression in girls, attending conferences and trainings on this topic.

East Williston
Roslyn
Community
Coalition for Drug-Free
Youth

This CAPS workshop will:

- provide you with the necessary tools to respond, act and cope with bullying situations
- teach you to recognize 'red flags'
- discuss the importance of friendship in preventing and reducing bullying
- provide you with the language necessary to create an action plan
- help you differentiate between normal conflict and true bullying
- assist you in fostering a healthy dialogue with your child online and offline

www.capsli.org

bullyhelpline@capsli.org

facebook.com/capsli

twitter.com/bullyprevention