presents an evening for parents & students

Teenage Gambling

An Evening of Support & Education

Hear first-hand stories from a panel of college students and parents whose lives have been affected by gambling. Learn how teens can lose control, how to identify the warning signs of gambling and how you can help. The program is presented with Gamblers Anonymous & co-sponsored by Partners in Community Care (PICC).

Wednesday, March 11th 7:30 p.m.
